Title: **Mastering the Moment: Penalty Stroke Precision****

Preparation Cue:

Take a slow, deep breath and feel your chest rise and fall. Let your focus narrow down to this moment, feeling ready and alert.

Main Imagery Script:

1. You're walking calmly to the penalty stroke spot at your favorite Peradeniya University ground. The grass under your feet is familiar and comforting.
2. Setting your stance with your legs shoulder-width apart, you feel stable and grounded. Your blue shoes grip the soft, lush grass.
3. Looking down, you see the white ball resting on the white penalty spot. Your red Alfa stick feels just right in your hands—your right hand in the middle, left at the top.
4. You lift your eyes to scan the entire goal. The net is clear, the posts are firm. Your mind is clear, no rush, just calm observation.
5. Your gaze returns to the ball. It's just you and that spot. Everything else fades away.
6. You settle your grip. Your body feels ready, muscles controlled yet ready to spring. You're poised, like a skilled archer with his bow.
7. Initiating the stroke, your movement is smooth and controlled. There's a rhythm to your swing that feels just right.
8. As you strike the ball, your intention is hidden, unpredictable. The ball speeds off towards the goal—fast, direct.
9. Following through, your stick points naturally towards your target. The motion is fluid, effortless.
10. Regaining your balance, you stand composed and confident. Your heart beats with a sense of accomplishment, ready for the next challenge.

Closing Performance Affirmation:

"I am alert, ready, and confident. Each stroke brings me closer to mastery."
